

SOCIETY

With much entertaining for out-of-town guests, the Ellis big show, and Charles W. Clarke's concert at the armory the past week has been a busy one for society folks, who have planned many other events for next week. The largest of these will probably be the tea given by the Woman's club at the home of Mrs. E. C. Patton, next Wednesday evening.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the auction bridge given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. William C. Knighton, complimenting Mrs. F. M. Jordan of Seattle, who is a house guest of Mrs. Henry W. Meyers; Miss De Beck of Vancouver, B. C., who is visiting her sister Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and Mrs. J. W. Beveridge. Miss Helen Beveridge, Mrs. Oscar Overbeck and Mrs. Harry Young of Portland, who have been house guests of Mrs. U. G. Shipley. Six tables were played, and following cards an elaborate luncheon was served at the little tables. Mrs. Asahel Bush, Jr., Mrs. Frederick R. Waters, Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. George Waters assisted the hostess in serving.

Card honors fell to Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, and Miss De Beck. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Oregon Grape foliage and pink carnations, the combination proving very attractive.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley was hostess Wednesday afternoon at one of the largest affairs of the week, when she entertained with eight tables of auction bridge in honor of her house guests from Portland, Mrs. J. W. Beveridge and daughter, Miss Helen Beveridge, sister and niece of Mrs. Shipley, and Mrs. Oscar Overbeck and Mrs. Harry Young, all prominent socially in the Rose city.

Assisting Mrs. Shipley were Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Miss Sophia Catlin and Miss Ellen Thiesen. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Oregon Grape and pink carnations; while the pink shaded lights cast a cheerful glow over all. Mrs. Beveridge added much to the pleasure of the guests by two beautiful solos. Card honors were won by Mrs. T. A. Livesley and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner. A dainty luncheon was served, a number coming in to tea following cards.

The Salem's Woman's club is planning a large tea at the home of Mrs. E. C. Patton Wednesday, January 28 for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund, a philanthropic branch of the woman's club movement throughout the country. Its object is to assist worthy students complete college courses who are handicapped by lack of funds. The movement is national and has always received the enthusiastic support of the Salem Woman's club which annually makes a contribution in this way while proving delightful hostesses to a large number of Salem people who attend, the affairs being open to all who care to attend, by paying a small admission fee, which goes into the fund. An excellent musical program is arranged and those who know what charming hostesses members of the club have proven in the past, eagerly anticipate the event.

The Cherry City Social club met at the home of Mrs. A. T. Wain Friday evening, filling five tables of "500."

WEDDING INVITATIONS
 Announcements, At-Home Cards, and Society Printing.
FULLER PRINTING CONCERN
 Phone Main 2179.

Card honors went to Mrs. Douglas C. Olson, Albert Mitner, Orville Doerfler, Miuto and D. J. Fry. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisel, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houston, Miss Florence Houston and Miss Effie Needham. Dainty refreshments were served and plans made to meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Douglas C. Misto.

Miss Margaret Auburn of Los Angeles was the guest of honor at a pretty tea given Tuesday afternoon, by Miss Ruth Gary at her home on North Winter street. A beautiful cluster of Edgewood violets formed the centerpiece on the table, where covers were laid for sixteen. A hand made trunk, suggesting the contemplated trip of Miss Auburn to Honolulu was one of the unique surprises planned for her, the trunk containing articles adapted for use on an ocean trip. The dainty favors were Cecil Brunner roses and violets.

At a beautiful church wedding, at high noon, Monday, January 19, Miss Agnes Lesley Stinson became the bride of Carl P. Williams, the Rev. Mr. Elliott officiating. Miss Agnes Elliott of Woodburn was bridesmaid and A. C. Benntzen of Eugene was best man. The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and carried an arm bouquet of carnations. The First Presbyterian church, where the wedding was solemnized was made a bower of beauty by the artistic use of smilax and potted palms. A reception and wedding breakfast followed the ceremony which was attended by a large number of friends, as the young people are both well known in this city, where Mr. Williams has been for several years editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal, while Miss Stinson who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stinson, has been quite popular in lodge circles, her father being the Grand Keeper of Records of the Knights of Pythias. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on the 4 o'clock Oregon Electric car for Seattle and points north and expect to be at home to their friends in Salem after the first of February.

The marriage of Miss Merrill Marie Smith to Charles Wesley Alexander was solemnized at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Smith, 1549 Oak street, Sunday afternoon, January 11, the Rev. Harry E. Marshall, of the First Baptist church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will reside on the groom's farm at Gervais.

The marriage of Miss Birdie L. Richards to Dr. William W. Rhodes occurred at the First Christian church parsonage at 2 o'clock, Saturday, January 17, Rev. P. T. Porter officiating. Dr. and Mrs. Rhodes will make their home at Woodburn.

At the Leslie Methodist church parsonage, Saturday afternoon, January 17, Miss Edith N. Whaller became the bride of Chester N. Dencer, Rev. J. C. Spenser, officiating. They will reside on the groom's farm near Liberty.

One of the pleasant out-of-town affairs occurred near Marion when Mrs. Harry Pierson entertained the young ladies and young men's Sunday school classes at her home on Friday evening. Mrs. Pierson is the teacher of the young ladies' class and John Palmer, Jr., teacher of the young men's class. The entertainment consisted of several interesting guessing and musical games and music, after which a delicious lunch was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haack, Mrs. Adda Wright, Misses Celia and Mary Winn, Estella Bloom, Selma and Ethel Olsen, Zella Gentry, Viola and Ann Haack, Emma Mitner, Beruice Doerfler, Gladys Barber, Vida Kephart, and Messrs. Carl Olson, Albert Mitner, Orville Doerfler, Clyde Hammette, Royal Barber, John Palmer, Jr., Cecil De Lassaux, Aluro Neal, Will Palmer and Gilbert Devaney of Jefferson.

The 80th birthday of C. A. Wallace, was celebrated Saturday, January 17, the occasion being made memorable by a post card shower from 30 of his friends in various parts of the country. In honor of the occasion Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, the wife of the State Treasurer and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace entertained at a family dinner, only relatives being present. Mr. Wallace is enjoying excellent health, which he attributes to the more than half a century he has spent in Oregon.

The following officers of Chadwick Chapter No. 37, O. E. S., were elected and installed for the ensuing year at their last meeting: Worthy matron, Ida B. Godfrey; worthy patron, Walter Smith; associate matron, Lizzie Reed; treasurer, Ida M. Babcock; conductress, Minnie Moeller; associate conductress, Elizabeth Shafer; marshal, Fay Wright; chaplain, Minnie McCauley; organist, Belle Brown; Ada, Estella Smith; Ruth Grace Babcock; Esther, Ermine Bushnell; Martha, Sylvia Jones; Electa, Emma McCarter; warden, Mrs. Olson; sentinel, Henry Schomaker; installing officer, Past matron Josephine Voss; Marian Darby, acting marshal.

Members of the sewing society of the Woman's Relief Corps were entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maud S. Willey on Union street. Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Snover, Mrs. Marion Sobver, Mrs. Tracey and Mrs. Clarke. Nearly fifty ladies were present, for in spite of the inclement weather the popularity of these social meetings generally results in a large attendance.

What might be termed a "Loganberry Social" was given in the auditorium of the promotion department of the Commercial club, Saturday, when 150 growers of this luscious berry were entertained. Addresses were given and a loganberry lunch served, consisting of loganberry punch donated by Mrs. Mildred Brooks, sherbert by Mrs. L. H. Roberts, while Mrs. Earl Race and Mrs. F. S. Byron contributed pies and fancy dishes of fruit. Among the growers were the following, many of whom were accompanied by their wives: Fred L. Scott, Salem; Ed. Young, Salem; C. W. Keene, Silverton; H. C. Tillman, Salem; S. Willis, Salem; Adam Burns, Salem; G. H. Smith, Jefferson; J. H. Albert, Salem; Wm. Uppendall, Hubbard; A. Kildahl, Brooks; Chas. W. Parker, Salem; L. H. Radcliffe, Salem; John P. Murphy, Salem; W. D. Mooney, Salem; E. E. Roberts, Salem; J. E. Ellison, Salem; A. E. Harris, Brooks; Geo. W. Brown, Brooks; I. M. Bales, Brooks; Britt Aspinwall, Gervais; Walter Campbell, Gervais; August Hilfiker, Salem; Oliver Jory, Salem; W. L. Bentley, Woodburn; G. T. Moisan, Brooks; M. J. Hunt, Salem; W. T. Pray, Salem; W. S. Mott, Salem; W. H. Squires, Salem; A. Lenta, Salem; E. G. Reamer, Salem; W. S. Lehman, Turner; J. J. Stangel, Woodburn; W. C. Dibble, Salem; Meredith Staley, Salem; F. M. Mitchell, Salem; A. M. La Pollette, Salem.

At the last meeting of the Aladanto Literary society of Willamette University the following officers were elected: Miss Lottie Penn, president; Miss Grace Thompson, vice-president; Miss Eva Grant, corresponding secretary; Miss Laura Ross, treasurer; Miss Rosamond Gilbert, first directress; Miss Vivian Young, second directress; Miss Anne Ketel, first critic; Miss Loretta Ford, second critic; Miss Gertrude Eakin, ambassador; Miss Elsie Philip, first usher; Miss Nellie Gleiser, second usher.

Salem Trades Unions were well represented at Astoria this week when the Oregon State Federation of Labor met in annual convention. The following were delegates, many being accompanied by their wives: Messrs. Harry Hill, O. C. Sellers, Richard Drophish, P. S. De Witt, T. M. Newberry, Adam Eckhorn, W. H. Sellwood, Art Artus, W. B. Summerville and State Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff.

The High School Debating team were guests of honor at a banquet given by Miss Long, coach of the team, at the High School last Wednesday evening. High School colors, red and black, predominated in the decorations. The banquet was served by one of the classes in domestic science, under the direction of Miss Edwards, the instructor, Miss Vesta Smith and Miss Ethel McGilchrist serving. Covers were laid for Mrs. Long, Mrs. Schmale, Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Helen Wood, Miss Henrietta Wolfer, Miss Regina Long and Messrs. Earl Kilpatrick, A. L. Schmale, Harold Eakin, Joe Morton, Lloyd Holderman, Dean Curtis and Otto Paulus.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen enjoyed a social evening at their Monday meeting, some 75 members and friends taking part. A "Shadow Social" was one of the pleasant features of the evening. The following program was presented:

Reading.....A Lecture On Women
 Edith Kellogg Bartlett.
 Piano Solo.....Miss Stutesman
 Reading....."Home Again With Me"
 Mrs. Melbride.
 Piano Solo.....Miss Edna Aufrance

The last meeting of the Teutonia Verein, the German club of Willamette University, was held recently at the home of Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, at her Court street residence. Miss Schramm had charge of the meeting, the roll call being answered by quotations from Schiller and Goethe. Miss Laura Heist read a paper on "Goethe's Personality." Other interesting numbers were "Der Koenig von Thule," by Charles Howard Bain, "Selections from a German Paper," Charles Hall, and "Apfel Schuss Scene from William Tell," by Jacob Stocker. Games and refreshments completed the pleasant evening.

The Junior class of Willamette University has selected "Canterbury Tales" as the May Day play to be staged under the direction of Prof. Wallace McMurray, teacher of English. Miss Daisy Mulkey, Ivan McDaniel and Seth Axley form the committee on arrangements.

A pleasant dancing party was given last Saturday evening at the M. B. A. hall at Chemawa, which was quite largely attended by the lodge members, a number going out from Salem.

Wednesday evening, January 14, at the home of Miss Emma Rogers on North 19th street, the Naomi circle of the First Methodist church delightfully entertained about fifty of their friends. The house was beautifully decorated in Oregon Grape and ferns with cluster bouquets of roses. After a program consisting of especially well received solos by the Misses Grace Smith, Eleanor Colony and Lucile Kuntz, and Messrs. Paul Smith and Guy Heislar, and splendid readings by the Misses Bertha Edwards and Lulu Walton, everyone enjoyed some interesting games. After dainty refreshments, the merry crowd left, voting the Naomi ladies royal hostesses.

Emphasizing the social side of the football business, Manager Smith, director of athletics, and Superintendent H. E. Wadsworth of Chemawa, gave the first football banquet at the school at Chemawa that has been held, last Saturday evening, but plans are materializing to have the event an annual one. Members of the student body, the faculty of the school and a number of visitors were invited to participate in the festivities and witness the awarding of the officials "C's" to the fourteen members of the 1913 football squad. Previous to this year no recognition of athletic ability had been presented the Chemawa athletes, but at Saturday's banquet a custom was inaugurated which it is the plan to carry out each year.

The men, who by their work on the football team won their letters and were presented with them at the banquet, follow: R. Downey, Walter, Heater, Scowille, R. Adams, P. Adams, Paul Six, Lane, Johnson, Fields, Wiggins, McDonald and Peratrovich.

Those present at the banquet and well known in football circles, who responded to toasts, were: Eric P. Bolt, captain of the Willamette university 1913 football team; Frank R. Pendergrass, captain of the O. A. A. team of 1907; Earl Kilpatrick, professor of the Salem High School, and a former member of the Oregon university team; Lewis Paul, of the Chemawa 1913 team and S. Moon and Reuben Saunders, former Chemawa athletes. Captains were elected for three different branches of athletes at the gathering. Those chosen were: Russell Adams, football; Kintus Jim, track, and A. Walker, baseball.

With a view to creating a little social life for themselves and promoting neighborhood sociability, 15 ladies of the Garden Road section recently organized a "Busy Club," to meet each Friday at the home of a member and visit while they employ themselves at needlework. Mrs. Benson was hostess Friday afternoon, Mrs. George Cavanaugh, Mrs. N. S. Savage and Mrs. Young having entertained the club at its previous meetings. The officers of the new organization are: President, Miss Ada Simpson; vice-pres., Mrs. George Cavanaugh; secretary, Mrs. W. Mickenham.

The friends of Miss Edna Dennison honored her birthday by a pleasant surprise party at her home, 185 South Nineteenth street, Friday, January 16. Games and music occupied the time pleasantly, Dr. Waite with flute, Miss Edna Denison with violin and Miss Irma Sumnerlin at the piano formed a delightful trio. George Beck also contributed several piano numbers. Refreshments were served, Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Dennison assisting. Mrs. Miles, Mrs. L. C. Dennison and Mrs. Dennis were chaperones for the party which broke up at a late hour by dancing the Virginia Reel. The guest list included: The Misses Savah Peetz, Athyl Sumnerlin, Irma Sumnerlin, Beula Sumnerlin, Hattie Wyland, Alta Berry, Eva Prints, Myrtle Rockhill, Ruth Wells, Vida Reeves, Edna Denison, Maud Laudlowsky, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. L. C. Dennison, Mrs. Dennis and Messrs. Dennis, Lyle Bartholomew, James Moorman, Frank Zinn, Claire Drager, Harry Seamster, Earl Seamster, Holt Cummings, Earl Johnson, Dr. Waite, George Beck, William Miles and Edwin Evans.

With the hearty indorsement of the rural mail carriers, who needed no urging to pledge themselves in favor of good roads, the dinner given these faithful servants of Uncle Sam and the public at the Hotel Marion last Sunday by the promotion department of the Commercial club, was successful from every point of view. It is not often that any social functions are so timed as to suit the convenience of the carriers, he is remembered chiefly when he happens to be a little late in making his deliveries, and so, when this big banquet, all in their honor was served by the Commercial club, it was greatly appreciated, and the "straight-from-the-shoulder talks" the carriers gave contained much information of value on the subject of bad roads, for they are unfamiliar with the sort known as "good roads."

Covers were laid for 32 persons, the guest list including rural mail carriers throughout Marion county, and officers of the state association. Practically all of the carriers are taxpayers, but the proposed bond issue for $850,000 was heartily endorsed, despite the probable cost to themselves. W. H. Squires, state secretary of the association presided and among the speakers were the Honorable George F. Rodgers, Postmaster Hucksstein and "Booster" Byron.

At the joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. meeting held in Willamette chapel Sunday afternoon the four delegates

(Continued on page 6.)

MUSICAL NOTES

Charles W. Clark appearing in the last concert of the course given at the Armory under the direction of Miss Minnetta Magers, was greeted Friday evening with a good house, and every number brought forth generous rounds of applause. Distinctly American, Mr. Clark, who has not resorted to some of the subtleties and disguises of less talented singers by taking a foreign name, showed his versatility in his splendid rendition of his French and German numbers, but it was in his English songs that won most applause.

Mr. Clark is a finished performer. His ease and mastery in singing, his clear enunciation, his delicate tonal shading won the admiration of his audience, while the beauty of his voice together with his intelligent and artistic interpretation of a wide range of songs won their enthusiasm. The program was such as to appeal to the most diverse tastes—from Gretry to Frances Wyman is a wide stretch, not only historically but also in artistic aims and manners. It is therefore a tribute to the versatility of the singer to state that he has the technical ability to do justice to all these different periods; that he has mastered the different idioms until his French and German are as clear as his English diction. With this mastery there is combined a good appreciation of the poetical content.

The two old French songs by Gretry were realized delightfully. The quaintness and the simplicity of the compositions demand a great deal of finesse and skillful shading and phrasing to make them vital. Of the songs by Sidney Homer one can say that they owed the greater part of their success to the splendid interpretation of the singer.

Standing out prominently in matters musical, the three performances of "The Band From Amsterdam" this week were noteworthy events. Not only because of the interest that attaches to local productions, but because of the excellent singing, dancing and acting, to say nothing of the gorgeous costumes and the laughter provoking situations throughout, that places this production of the annual Elks' play ahead of those in former years. The weather man was in his worst humor, and there was every variety of squall but society maids and matrons braved the elements and the opera house has rarely seen a more brilliant array of charming femininity both on the stage and in the audience. Many persons attended all three evenings, and the play could profitably have played a week's run engagement. George Curtis Lee Snyder, Salem's sweet singer was the heavy comedian Otto Van Dipple, the leader of the "Band from Amsterdam" who essayed and succeeded in hatching an egg under his arm while waiting to put through a little real estate deal. In monologue and tourist cap, with the unmistakable accent of a Britisher, Arthur L. Wallace made a great hit as Gaffney Cunningham, a representative of a London syndicate. Jim Willson as "Mrs. McGraw was one of the hits of the evening, while Oliver Mayers, as Joe Wheeler, the cab reporter was especially appreciated by the newspaper fraternity. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, whose sweet voice has so often charmed Salem audiences was very attractive in the role of a society matron, in addition to her singing part which was one of the most enjoyed of the evening. Especially in the feature chorus, composed of sixteen pretty maids and seven stalwart youths was the real climax of enjoyment reached. The dancing of exceptional merit, appearing decidedly more professional than had been anticipated. Albert Egan, always a favorite in amateur theatricals was at his best, and others deserving special mention were Miss Ada Miller, Miss Grace Lilly, E. G. Rialine, Fred S. Byron, A. L. Frasier and Harry Wenderoth. Those composing the chorus were: Miss Priscilla Fleming, Miss Emma Botsford, Miss Jo Driscoll, Miss Alice Skiff, Miss Marie Holcomb, Miss Agnes Driscoll, Miss Phyllis Kellogg, Miss Genevieve Frazier, Miss Anna Yantis, Miss Mary Shultz, Miss Marie Breitenstein, Miss Leonidino Eckerlen, Miss Lucile Jaskowski, Miss Bertha Doerfler, Miss Hazel Pratt, Miss Marie Campbell, H. J. Miering, Dr. S. S. Skiff, Paul Stege, Dan Langenberg, Carl Schwab, W. E. Slater, John Farrar, Chester Frazier.

In the audience the third evening were those who probably best enjoyed the show, the inmates of the Girls' Training School, the Boys' Training School and 40 Capital Journal carrier boys who went as guests of the Journal management.

The regular meeting of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church was made especially enjoyable last Sunday evening through the efforts of Miss Evelyn Riegelman, chairman of the social department of the league. Miss Lella McCaddam, Miss Ruth Boyer, Miss Lucile McCulley, Miss Stella Graham, Miss Ava McMahon, Miss Norma Harper and Harold Jory all appeared in musical number, the sacred music being beautifully rendered.

The membership of the Ladies Glee Club of Willamette College of Music is announced as follows: Misses Dimick, Ashby Harding, McGilchrist, Cooksey, Harrison, Denison, Schmidt, Chapman, Cooke, Winters, Johns, Heist, Emmel, McMahon, Schramm, Cone, Buckley, Avison, Graham, Young, Mulkey, Ryan, Boyer, Hoxie, Cox, Kuntz, Thompson, McIntuff, DeLong, Waldron, McCully, Florin Lachmann and Garrison.

The Evangelical church on North Cottage street will give a sacred concert in the church on Sunday afternoon, February 1, at 3 p. m. There will be several orchestra selections and other instrumental numbers. Some of the leading talent of the city has been secured and those who enjoy music can hear a good program. The program in detail will be announced next week.

Everybody Admires a Beautiful Complexion.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Delightful Toilet Requisite for Fashionable Women.

A daily necessity for the ladies' toilet whether at home or while traveling, it protects the skin from injurious effects of the elements, gives a wonderfully effective beauty to the complexion. It is a perfect non-greasy Toilet Cream and positively will not cause or encourage the growth of hair which all ladies should guard against when selecting a toilet preparation. When dancing, bowling or other exertions heat the skin, it prevents a greasy appearance.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream has been highly recommended by physicians, actresses, singers and women of fashion for over half a century and cannot be surpassed when preparing for daily or evening attire.

Diseases and relieves Sunburn, Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness, Yellow and Muddy Skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

No. 11 For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

MR. HENRY PECK AND HIS FAMILY AFFAIRS

By Gross

HENRY JR. SAYS

OUR OLD FRIEND
 PECK IN THE LURE OF BROADWAY

CHARACTERS
 A SOUSE... MR. PECK
 HIS WIFE... MRS. PECK SPLIT-UP KENT THE BELLHOP... JOE X

SCENE... NEW YORK
 TIME... A LITTLE LATER THAN THAT ACT I ENTER MR. R.
 RINGS THE CLOSET PROPOSES

HOW, NOW?
 FALSE WRETCH,
 WHENCE COME YOU
 AT THIS LATE MIDNIGHT HOUR?

SOFT,
 WOMAN, SOFT!

MOON

I COME NOT FROM LOW HAUNTS OF MEN WHERE VICE AND GAMES OF CHANCE DO TRINE, BUT FROM

MOON

A FOUNTAIN OF LEARNING DO I COME - A LECTURE HALL, WHERE I DID WHILE AWAY THE EVE SO, WOMAN -

HEY, PECK, IS DESE YER
 GLOVES? I FOUND EM NEAR DE BAR WHERE YOU WUZ STANDIN'. ARE DEY YOURS?

CHEW KELLY'S GUM

COMING NEXT WEEK -
SNIFFY SAM,
 THE BOY SNOW-BIRD

HENRY PECK JR.